The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary research techniques. The primary research involved direct observation and interviews with key stakeholders. Secondary research was conducted through a review of existing literature and industry reports.

The third section presents the findings of the study. It highlights several key trends and patterns observed in the data. These findings are supported by statistical analysis and visual representations such as charts and graphs. The results indicate a significant shift in consumer behavior over the period studied.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations based on the findings. These suggestions are aimed at helping organizations better understand their market and improve their strategic decision-making. The author notes that ongoing monitoring and evaluation will be necessary to track the effectiveness of these recommendations.

RESOLVED FURTHER THAT all the acts, deeds, and things done or caused to be done by the aforesaid authorized persons, for the above matters, before conferring this authorization, be and are hereby ratified and confirmed, as being done or caused to be done for and on behalf of the Company.

RESOLVED FURTHER THAT all such acts, deeds, matters and things to be done by aforesaid authorized persons, in connection with and to safeguard the interest of the company, shall be binding on the company and deemed to have been done by the company itself.

RESOLVED FURTHER THAT above authorization in favor of the aforesaid authorized persons, shall remain in force till the date they remain in the employment or any other resolution is passed by the Directors, modifying and/or revoking this authorization, whichever is earlier.

RESOLVED FURTHER THAT a certified true copy of this resolution be forwarded wherever required under the signatures of any Director or Company Secretary of the Company."

manner:

- (i) Management Escalation. The Parties agree that in the event of any Dispute(s); the Parties shall in good faith attempt to resolve the Dispute(s) through negotiation. Accordingly, each party agrees that it shall not commence arbitration proceedings against the other in connection with such Dispute(s) without first attempting to resolve the Dispute(s) in accordance with the following procedure:
- (a) Written notice of the Dispute(s) shall be issued to the other, and, the Party issuing the Notice of Dispute(s) shall be referred to as the "Claimant" and the other Party shall be referred to as the "Respondent"). Such notice shall state the nature of the Dispute(s), the Claimant's position, and its reasons supporting its position. Within 15 (fifteen) days of the receipt of the Notice of Dispute(s) by the Respondent, the Parties shall communicate, meet and negotiate for resolution of the Dispute(s). If Parties fail to resolve the Dispute(s) within 30 (thirty) days of the receipt of the Notice by the Respondent, then either Party may commence actions for arbitration proceedings.
- (b) All negotiations pursuant to this mechanism shall be confidential and treated as settlement discussions for the purposes of applicable laws.
- (ii) Arbitration—If Dispute(s) is/are not resolved by Management Escalation, it shall be settled by binding arbitration, under the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 by a single arbitrator appointed mutually by both the Parties.
