the use of the term "under the shadow" (i.e., a "shadow" of the spirit) is not a new idea. It is a term used by the ancient Greeks to describe the "shadow" of a person's soul. The word "shadow" is derived from the Greek word "skia," which means "shadow" or "shade." The word "skia" is also the root of the English word "shadow." The word "skia" is also the root of the English word "shadow."
